Jonathan Garcia

Full Stack Web Developer

About me

I am a proactive person in every sense, and my strongest goal is to grow in the field I am developing in, build a strong team, and contribute all my knowledge to the company. I am always eager to learn every day and achieve optimal results. I enjoy working in a team, and I am interested in having everyone be part of the same objective and in reaching the satisfaction of overcoming a challenge.

I consider myself efficient in every task I undertake, determined, practical, and fast.
